

INTERIORS

INTERIORS, is a series of prints based upon my interpretation the banality of my existence expressed through the eye of abstraction. This portfolio documents elements of my life that hint at both a real world as well as an illusionary one. This gives way to the discussions of the banality of life and the hint of eroticism of the everyday.